News Release

For Immediate Release:

Updated May 14, 2021 – Match time corrected from original release.

May 14, 2021, Topeka, KS -- The Kansas Volleyball Association is pleased to announce the 2021 All Star squads. The annual All Star match will be held this year on June 5, 2021, at Lee Arena on the Washburn University campus. Match time will be 6:30 pm. The players selected are first nominated by their high school coaches (who must be KVA members), and then recommended by committee to fill the squads. Based on achievements, positions, classifications, collegiate plans and availability the squads are determined and divided into two teams which should provide for a very competitive match.
